

Washington D.C.

James B. Abbott being first duly sworn before me deposes and says that he was the United States Agent for the Shawnee Indians from June 1861 to 1867. That he is personally acquainted with Eliza Randall, Jane Booth, Margaret-Williams and John Parks. That they are members of said tribe, nearly white, Educated, Wealthy, and every way competent to manage their Affairs. That he recollects distinctly the making of the conveyance by Margaret Williams to Catharin Fritz also the conveyance of Eliza Randall, Jane Booth, Margaret-Williams and John Parks. ~~That~~ of May Park (deceased) to Catharine Fritz that the consideration mentioned in said deeds (being due to the 18th day of February 1863.) was a full and fair price for the land conveyed at the time, and that the same was paid in my presence in lawful money of the United States, and that the transactions were free from fraud or deception, to the best of my knowledge and belief.
