Washington, D.C. August 1st 1868

Sir

From an examination of the circumstances as stated in your letter of the 30th ult, I am satisfied that it would be proper to relax the rules and regulations otherwise applicable to such cases and have approved the enclosed deed of conveyance from General Jackson Rogers, a Shawnee Indian, to D. J. McShree, under the Shawnee treaty of 1854.

Yours truly

Very respectfully
Lawrence S. Burdett

Hon. A. G. Taylor
Commr of Indⁿ Affairs.
